A yellow moon, shining clear.

Moonlight splashed on virgin snow

Shadows cloistered hanging near

Rushing tumbling by my window.

Whistle screaming, coach a-swaying,

Engine throbbing charging forward;

Stell [steel] on reail, clanging, ringing;

Singing me to sleep -a-dreaming.

Bubbling voices of companions

Help to keep me from my slumber,

Help to make the din more complex

On my trip from home to Denver.

Written while on the train coming out to my mission field.

Elder Clark.
