to pay for the glass & sent me back with it."

Br. -Clarke the teacher that night. "That shows doesn't it that because of your training you weren't afraid to go home & tell your mother."

Br. Ursenbach interrupted - "But I didn't tell her, someone else did."

We all had a good laugh when Br. Clarke explained that his point had been ruined altogether. The night was very still and nippy with snow still on the ground. We came home at 9:30
