Love Song

Dorothy Smith

5 October 1933

Darling, to you I belong—

Darling, I'm singing a song

Of sunlight and starlight

And whispering trees

Of gay-scented evenings

And love's melodies.

You held me so closely

'Twas heavenly there,

I'm dreaming and praying

That you'll always care

Picture a gold harvest moon

An evening that ended too soon

A night in October

When pledged my love

To you who is dearest

'Neath heaven above.

Sing love's song to me,

Say you belong to me—

Now and forever you're mine.
