Love Song	Dorothy Smith
Darling, to you I belong—	5 October 1933
Darling, I'm singing a song
Of sunlight and starlight
And whispering trees
Of gay-scented evenings
And love's melodies.
You held me so closely
'Twas heavenly there,
I'm dreaming and praying
That you'll always care
Picture a gold harvest moon
An evening that ended too soon
A night in October
When pledged my love
To you who is dearest
'Neath heaven above.
Sing love's song to me,
Say you belong to me—
