Dearest Mother

I have your two letters to answer now whereas I was wondering myself how we would get our mail straightened out again.

We surely feel good to know there is a place of refuge for us in time of need and are only regret that our school teaching couldn't be near yours.

They expect us to stay here more than a year altho of course were looking for something bigger so we can save more and as long as there is fair cash work I guess we shouldn't give it up.
