Rendezvous

Indian summer brought a story

Of a lover's troth

Golden autumn shed its glory

Thru the wood

Where Romance stood

Waiting to beguile the pair

Who should chance to wander there.

Hand in hand a maiden strolled

With a youth thru paths of gold,

Romance round them did entwine

Filled their hearts with love's own wine.

Bade them drink and tarry there,

Bade them love's sweet gifts to share.

Transfixed in that starry night

Two lips confessed that she was right;

Two arms betrayed a secret fair:

Love's paradise had blossomed there.
