many trials, pain & anguish of body, but O I thank the, for my body, that thou hast given me my [...] my work to do upon the earth, I have done my work. & through thy grace been faithful to thee & thy cause. O thou God of my salvation & the salvations of the sons of men, I thank thee that through thy grace I have kept my body pure & undefiled, O God O my Father comfort the hearts of my family & friends which are dear to me, I shall only be separated from you for a little season, when in the morning of the resurection I shall arise without this frail body, having an immortal one. Oh my Father a joy unspeakable fills my soul, & rapture fills my heart for the veil will soon by wrent & I shall behold my companion and my
