kindex®
< Scan QR to view this original record online, or visit https://smith-clark.kindex.org/s/27280

Title: 1933-07-27_Ells-to-Dot
Provenance: From Dorothy Jean Clark Chamberlain, who was given a box of courtship letters by her mother Dorothy Smith Clark.
Courtship letters written from Ellsworth Clark to Dorothy Smith from 1932 to 1934.

Category: Document
Person: Ellsworth Marion Clark
Date:

Georgetown July 27

1933

appreciate the rose. Now I [...] that I have at some time liked and still hold as friends, I can [...] more dearly your worth. It is not as it was a year ago when I compared you with others on a scale. That is not necessary. Your love and respect is worth more to me than the whole bunch thrown in Together. All I can say Dorothy is that God is good in that I am alive and able to love you and live with you and later to fulfill the measure of our creation together. I know we shall

- - - - - - - - - - - - END OF PAGE 1 - - - - - - - - - - - - live in such a manner as to thank God in our living for the blessing we have received. Sometime Science and School make [...] feel that such as love can be explored on the Terms of elements and the laws of Physics and Chemistry, Biological laws etc. without the need is a supreme being. Darling I know my love for you is from [...] deeper and more fr[...] than the crude stuff I am made of, and this world alone. Love must be a manifestation of a supreme being. When things look black and insecure we will